The Readjuster Ticket.

The Wais assures us that there will be ticket made up by the Readjusters of Virginia in their July Convention, but discreetly intimates that it will not necessarily be an anpledged ticket. Just so. There will be no uncommitted ticket run in Virginia this year. What would be the rationale of such a proceeding? There will be that two expedidates for President who will carry State. These will be the nominees of the Cincinnati and the Chicago Conventions. Now, tell us why there should be any ascommitted ticket run undersuch ereumstances? Let us suppose that BLENE and HANCOCK are the nominees respectively of these Conventions. Necessarily, then, it will follow that the Eckdjusters will have nobody to choose between next November whom they will not have before them as candidates when their Convention meets in July. Why, then, should not the choice of the Readjusters be made at once? It will be unade at once. The unpledged electeral ticket will have been abandoned, and the next move must be a choice between BLAINE and Hancock. To which of these candidates will the

Mazone Convention give in its adhesion? Not to General HANCOCK; because that Convention will consist largely of Republicans. These will never agree to support a Demoeratic candidate for President. Especially will this be the case with the negroes. They can never, we suppose, be induced to transfer their votes from the Republican to the Democratic side in a national election. That would be a very different thing from voting as between the Rezdiasters and the Conmervatives, as they had to do last fall. Besides, we suppose that none but the most malignant of the Conservative Readjusters will desert the Democratic party whilst it is engaged in trying to elect a Democratic President. The office-seekers who hope for nething from the Conservative party, and the office-holders elected by the last Legislature, who are straid of not getting, or of losing, places, will be the only Democrats in the July Conwention, we guess; and if so, the Republican element will control that body, and either cause it to declare for the Republican nominee for President, or else the negroes will desert the MAHONE party, and leave it

But suppose a ticket be made up consisting of six Republicans and five Conservative Readjusters, or five of the former and six of the latter; how then? Such a ticket would be a blank ballot. The two ends of it would cancel each other, and the product would be nought. It would be just as well to run only the odd man, since the other ten electors would count for exactly nothing. Such a proceeding cannot be expected of sensible men. The ticket must be for somebody, and that somebody will probably be the Republican nominee. And just as soon as such a ticket is made up and the Readjusters thus openly confess their alliance with the Republicans, we expect to see the Conservative Readjusters falling into line with their old Democratic friends.

uld be learned from the action of the State Conventions or otherwise. The following are the figures up to Wednesday night : Whole number of delegates.....

This table gives to GRANT the entire vote of New York and Pennsylvania, which he will not get. As it stands, however, he lacks 80 of having votes enough to nominate him on the first ballot-the ballot on which it is supposed he will get his largest vote. Can he get 80 votes from the States yet to elect? Let us see. They are :

If he loses 26 out of the 106, GRANT can't set the nomination. Our own besief is that he will lose 26 or more in Illineis-possibly 42. But whether he does or not, ke will probably lose 10 in Alabama, 6 in Colerado, 2 in Dakots, 2 in Idaho, 10 in Minnesota, 6 in Nebraska, and 2 in Wyoming. Louisiana, in a word, is the only State which is at all likely to send a solid delegation in favor of GRANT. As matters now stand, we don't expect even Louisfana to instruct for anybody. If, as some of them say, GRANT'S gest to them that it is about time for them to begin. "The Philistines be upon thee, SAMSON."

THE BLAINE BOOM IN ILLINOIS,-It will surprise no one to learn that the result of the Cook County Convention has made in favor of Mr. BLAINE's success in the countles which have since chosen delegates to the State Convention. On Monday the BLAINE and WASHBEENE men defeated the GRANT men in the County Convention, and the latter bolted. On Tuesday Republican Conventions were held in four counties, with the following result: Grant. Blaine. Burne.

This is the beginning of the end. These figures show plainly enough that General GRANT has no possible chance at present to secure a united delegation from Illinois. The BLAINE boom has overwhelmed the third-termers.

From the Virginia delegation to the Chi. cago Convention we have some authentic news which we commend to the attention of Colonel Porman, who could not conceive it to be possible that any delegate instructed to vote for Grant would vete for Dispatch and Commonwealth for publica-BLAINE. The Petersburg Appeal of yesterday says:

"We have positive information from a source which we regard as absolutely reliable that the defection in the rank's of the Grant delegates is not confined to the worthern States, but includes this State also. Two of the Virginia delegates instructed by the Staunton Convention to vote for Grant will show the Chicago Convention that instructions do not instruct, and that they will act for themselves, regardless of any resolutions passed by their State Convention."

This news does not surprise us at all. We

The Primary Election, The primary election passed off quietly and pleasantly yesterday. The people exroice, and we trust that all true Conservatives will at once acquiesce in their verdict. None of us were fortunate enough to secure the nomination of our favorite for every office. We must all, however, bow te the will of the majority. The disappointed aspirants will not be in good humor for a day or two, perhaps; but they will all, it is to be hoped, be ready before election day to Join the ranks of the Conservative workers.

We don't know snything about the "at empted disturbance" of the Readjuster of Republican meeting of Wednesday night, which the Whie makes the subject of its leader of yesterday. But we do know that the law-loving and law-ableing white citirens of this city belong for the most part to the Conservative party, and consequently that it is simply absurd to charge that the Conservatives of Richmond have any sympathy with lawlessness and disorder. The city authorities will surely punish any disturbers of the peace who may have been detected in unlawful acts, whether they belong to the Conservative party or to the party of the Whiq. No votes can be made on that issue. Let the men or boys guilty of the outrage of which the Whig speaks be punished. No true Conservative approves of lawlessness, and every true Conservative is
